

SBE19 Conference in Helsinki

11.4.2019

Early Bird Fee available until 15 April - Register now!

SBE19 Conference in Helsinki gathers forerunning researchers, companies and authorities to share latest trends and good practices in sustainable built environment.

The Conference focuses on resource efficiency and circular economy. The topics cover also widely e.g. healthy spaces, nature based solutions, innovative procurement models and collaboration in resilient cities.

Click here to read more

The program containing over 80 presentations from more than 20 countries is now published in the website. Join us to network in emerging concepts in the built environment! Early bird registration closes 15 April.

Click here to register

Download here printable version of the programme